Malcome Sherrill is in the county jail awaiting a preliminary hearing, which is set for Saturday, on the charge of having cut Oscar Barnes, one Sunday night about three or four weeks ago when attending a Holy Roller meeting. He was arrested last Saturday by Deputy Sheriff Deet Adams. Sherrill is said to have had a pistol on him when arrested. He will doubtless be bound to circuit court to answer for a pistol case.

Mr. Nugent is a very industrious and willing worker and rendered valuable assistance while with us. We regretted to lose him but slack business forced a reduction of expenses. The Chronicle extends to Mr. Nugent our most earnest good will and best wishes for his success wherever he may be engaged.

LECTURER COMING

Dr. C. F. Swift Will Talk on "Another Colossal Job for Uncle Sam" at Baptist Church

Crossville is shortly to receive a great treat in the nature of a lecture by Dr. C. F. Swift, one of the foremost orators of America, on the subject, "Another Colossal Job for Uncle Sam."

Dr. C. F. SWIFT,
at Baptist Church, April 25.

Since Dr. Swift is working under the direction of the Anti-Saloon League of America, it is comparatively easy for one to determine along what lines his talk will be directed.

There is every probability that he will give some very illuminating information touching the Volstead Act. Showing what has been done, the difficulties under which the work has been performed, the outlook for stricter enforcement and numerous other phases of the prohibition movement that so seriously effect the well being of our country as a whole. The lecture will be given at the Baptist church, Monday, April 25, 7:30 p. m. and will be free. A hearty invitation is extended to the public in general to be present and hear this great orator.

Wm. Daves and Mr. Wilkes went to Nashville Saturday on business.

Friends of Mrs. H. E. Partridge, formerly of Cumberland county, now of Norwalk, California, will be sorry to know that she fell in the yard of her home on the 9th of April, and had a bad fracture of her left arm. Mrs. Partridge is nearly 72 years of age and not very well, but it is hoped that she will make a good recovery and have a pretty good shoulder and arm movement yet. Mr. Partridge writes hopefully, but suggests that she is quite too old to take such rough treatment.

Several members of the M. E. Church visited the home of Rev. C. A. Kozier Monday night and presented him and family with an extensive "pounding." The things hurled at them consisted of all manner of things from cash to eatables of endless variety. About thirty persons were present representing almost all the families who belong to that church. The occasion proved one of much pleasure to those who assisted in the "pounding" as well as Rev. Kozier and family. Rev. Kozier and family extend their profound thanks to the kind friends who remembered them in so pleasant and generous manner.

The Heffner-Vinson Stock Company will begin a week of entertainment here Monday. They will have a large waterproof tent, will present an entire new attraction each day and promise to furnish a clean and interesting performance. The advance agent, Billy Bane, was here this week making arrangements and seems to be a gentleman. He showed us clippings from papers at points where they had showed that complimented the show very highly. It would seem that this is one show that is worthy of your patronage.

Monday morning there was a slight snow with us, but it quickly passed and seems to have done little damage. Monday and Tuesday nights there was slight frost, which did little damage. Most fruit is thought to have been killed previous to the last cold snap, but it is expected that there will be some apples.

The play given by the Boys' Glee Club and the Girls' Glee Club, of the high school, in the Mecca theater last night brought out a crowded house, every available seat being taken. The exercises throughout were excellent as was evidenced by the rounds of applause with which they were greeted at many stages. The young ladies in colored costumes were especially pleasing, for while it smacked of vaudeville, there was not the slightest semblance of anything approaching vulgarity or unseemliness, but it was of the chaste and beautiful which the most fastidious would richly enjoy. The negro dialect work was warmly applauded by the audience as was the entertainment by the Sweet Family. The proceeds amounted to $44.
